Not many fans of the original Savage Dragon comic books know that there was an animated series in the mids or that it managed to last two seasons, much less that it featured the voice talent of none other than Mark Hamill himself, as well as Jim Cummings, Michael Dorn, Rene Auberjonois, Frank Welker, and Tony Jay. In addition, the pilgrimage, combining a fundamentally religious purpose with its secular aspect of vacation in the spring, made possible extended consideration of the relationship between the pleasures and vices of this world and the spiritual aspirations for the next, that seeming dichotomy with which Chaucer, like Boethius and many other medieval writers, was so steadily concerned.
